

Bill Killmer, Executive Vice President, Advocacy, National Association of Home Builders

Bill Killmer has over twenty years of government relations/public policy experience in Washington, D.C. For the past seven years, Bill has overseen the operations of all policy-based outreach for NAHB. More specifically, Bill manages the integrated areas of Government Affairs (federal & state/local), Public Affairs, Regulatory & Housing Policy, Legal Affairs, Construction, Codes, and Standards, and the NAHB High Production Home Builders Council.

Prior to being Group Executive Vice President of Advocacy, Bill served as NAHB's Senior Staff Vice President within the Government Affairs area. As senior lobbyist for NAHB, Bill represented the interests of the nation's housing industry before Congress and the Administration. Bill also managed BUILD-PAC, NAHB's political action committee. Bill served as Staff Vice President in charge of NAHB's former Congressional Affairs Department and began his tenure at the association in 1991 as Legislative Director for labor, small business, health and budget issues.

Before joining NAHB, Bill worked in the first Bush Administration within the U.S. Department of Labor's Office of Congressional and Intergovernmental Affairs as a Senior Legislative Officer. Bill holds a Bachelor's degree in Business Administration (BBA), with a concentration in finance and economics, from Baylor University.
